++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Extensive haar for Orkney but bright spells for Shetland.

Today:
Haar will affect the Isles during the day but there is a good chance Shetland will stay brighter with sunny spells until later. Fresh southeasterly winds will make it feel cool under the cloud but quite pleasant in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Low cloud and fog is likely to ruin any evening sunshine especially around eastern coasts, perhaps some brightness west Shetland, some drizzle likely too and fresh winds continuing. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Friday:
Early low cloud and fog is likely to clear, especially for Orkney. with dry and bright conditions by afternoon. Lighter winds too. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
The weekend will be a mix of haar and brighter weather in the southeasterly winds. Perhaps a few showers for Orkney on Saturday night and Sunday. Outbreaks of rain Monday.
